Pemberton Old Wigan DW Brass Band

"Christmas Truce"

1914 swept ordinary people into a century of wars, but in mid-winter that same year, troops united in celebrating Christmas with their own unauthorised truce. This concert evokes a century of wars, people's courage, humour, fortitude, comradeship and universal desire for peace and renewal that is Christmas.

Pemberton Old Wigan DW Band organisation boasts a Championship band led by Stig Maersk, a 'B' Band, recently promoted to the Second Section, led by Peter Ashley and a Youth Band led by John Don-Duncan. The Senior Band which is currently ranked in the top 30 in the 4barsrest.com rankings has qualified for the National Finals twice since 2009 and had numerous successes as a contesting band. The band, however, prides itself most on its innovative concerts and the three-tier organisation which serves the Wigan community.

There will be a collection at the concert for the White Poppy Appeal

Saturday 14th December at 7.45 p.m.
Admission £12.00; £5.00 [YP/Student]
